Art Unit: 1754

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 87-91 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The "enabling" disclosure is not commensurate in scope with the subject matter encompassed by the claims, in that the specification does not enable one to produce hydrogen by percolating an effluent of hydrogen and carbon monoxide through fluidized beds of magnetite. In re Borkowski, 422 F.2d 904; 164 USPQ 642 (CCPA 1970). Applicant's argument, that the specification on page 44, line 1 to page 45, line 6, as well as the equations R7 to R9 in lines 10-12 of page 43 comply with the enablement requirement of 35 USC 112, first paragraph, is not convincing. It is clear from those portions of the specification that any hydrogen which is produced is a result of steam reacting with metallic iron in a metallic iron chamber 228 according to reaction R9, wherein the steam is generated in a heat extracting apparatus 224, rather than by simply percolating an effluent of hydrogen and carbon monoxide through magnetite.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 95 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is indefinite as to whether the "second gas effluent" would necessarily be different from the effluent recited earlier. In line 6, "an" should be deleted and -- a first -- should be substituted therefor, and in line 8, the word -- first -- should be inserted before "effluent" to avoid this rejection.

Claim 92 is objected to as based on rejected parent claims, and would be allowed if written in independent form.

Claims 1-86, 93 and 94 are allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
